

terra

Centre for pregnant & parenting teens

Manager, Donor Relations

A new position which has been developed in response to the successful efforts of creating and cultivating relationships with donors and the community. This position will appeal to a professional individual who is inspired by the mission of Terra and the potential of teen parents. All responsibilities relate to relationship development.

- Cultivate and maintain donor relations (individual and corporate)
- Coordinate donor recognition activities
- Develop and implement alumni program
- Promote Future Builders, endowment program
- Lead role, Promising Futures annual fundraising event
- Conduct agency presentations
- Supervise Volunteer Coordinator

For desired competencies and more information visit our website at www.terraassociation.com.

This position will remain open until a candidate is secured.

Please email resumes to terra@terraassociation.com.

We thank all who express an interest in this position but will contact only those selected for an interview.