

Director: Lawrence Haroun

Lawrence has the following academic degrees and awards: 1). Graduate Degree in Public Health, Majoring Family Health and Sub majoring School Health. 2). Academic Certificates in “Counseling Children with Special Needs”. 3). Joint Fellowship from both “The World Health Organization” and “Alexandria University’s Family Health Department”.

Currently, he is a member of the Executive Board & Workshop Facilitator of “St. Albert Youth Community Centre, member of the CYCAA Executive Board & Conference Committee, Instructor of Child & Youth Care Multilingual Outreach Program, Instructor for “Foster, Adoptive & Kinship Care Training Program - Edmonton & Area Child & Family Services Region 6 and a Child & Youth Care Counsellor at Changes Residential Program.

Lawrence has more than 30 years working with children and youth in a variety of settings: school, residential, foster care, therapeutic and mental health. His past experience includes: 1). Instructor, “Child & Youth Care Bachelor’s Degree Program”, Faculty of Health & Community Studies, Grant MacEwan, 2). In charge of Child & Youth Care Counsellors’ and Foster Parents’ development and continuous education, Changes. 3). A Researcher of “Child and Adolescent Mental Health at different community and academic levels, Changes & Alexandria University. 4). Participated in several Conferences and gave presentations of Children Mental Health, Ain Shams University & Alexandria University.