Bachelor of Child & Youth Care (with diploma exit option)

You've already chosen a career supporting youth and their families. You're passionate about helping people, and you believe everyone deserves an opportunity to reach their full potential.

Now it's time to reach your full potential at Grant MacEwan College.

The first of its kind in Alberta, MacEwan's four-year Bachelor of Child and Youth Care program gives you the realistic, practical training to help you make a difference in the lives of your clients. The dynamics of youth are explored through courses in adolescent development and special issues in youth care.

Your degree. Your choice.

The program is delivered in a variety of formats to enable you to balance work and study. Complete the full, four-year degree through full and/or part-time study delivered on site at MacEwan's South Campus in Edmonton. Or complete your diploma or begin your degree through a combination of online and print-based distance learning.

Take the next step.

A Bachelor of Child and Youth Care credential helps advance your career and opens the door to graduate programs in Child and Youth Care. As a Child and Youth Care professional (with a diploma in CYC or a related discipline), you may be able to transfer into year 3 of the degree program.
